

OSHO MEDITATION RETREAT

AN INVITATION TO GO IN

“Meditation has only one meaning, and that is going beyond the mind and becoming a witness. In your witnessing is the miracle -- the whole mystery of life.” OSHO

After successfully conducting meditation camps in Europe, Asia and Russia, Sw. Anand Arun has kindly consented to conduct meditations in Hesperia, California this July. Please join us to celebrate this Independence Day with Love, Laughter and Meditations.

Sw. Anand Arun is the founder and coordinator of Osho Tapoban, a thriving international commune and forest retreat center in Nepal. He has been an Osho disciple since the early 70s and has been leading meditation camps all over the world ever since. He has conducted more than 300 meditation camps and initiated more than forty thousand people from 80 countries.

In 1984 Osho declared him Acharya and Bodhisattva and in 1986 Osho appointed him as the Director of meditation and spiritual growth affiliated to Rajneesh Mystery School. He has also facilitated several Stress management programs.

During the retreat, there will be an opportunity to take Sannyas and be an Osho Disciple. Sw.Arun's camps are full of intense energy and will remain with you for the rest of your life.
